

Extraordinary Lives: Mary Anning - Glossary

Can you match these words from the article to their definitions?

A. acknowledgment
B. adept
C. annuity
D. astute
E. counterpart
F. depot
G. dire straits
H. disillusioned
I. ebb
J. extinct
K. instrumental
L. invertebrate
M. Jurassic
N. outlandish
O. palaeontologist
P. patriarchal
Q. prehistoric
R. sedimentary
S. supplement (verb)

1. Something which is the equivalent of something else.
2. No longer in existence.
3. An animal which doesn't have a backbone.
4. Unusual; unfamiliar.
5. Belonging to the second part of the Mesozoic era, between 190 and 140 million years ago.
6. The movement of the tide away from land.
7. An important part of.
8. Controlled by men.
9. A sum of money paid every year.
10. Dating back to the period before written records.
11. Very serious situation.
12. A scientist who studies fossils.
13. Rock which has formed through layers of matter being built up.
14. To add to.
15. Skilled.
16. Disappointed that something does not meet expectations.
17. A place where goods are stored.
18. Recognition of something or someone's importance.
19. Smart; shrewd.

Extraordinary Lives: Mary Anning

Glossary - Answers

A. acknowledgment	18. Recognition of something or someone's importance.
B. adept	15. Skilled.
C. annuity	9. A sum of money paid every year.
D. astute	19. Smart; shrewd.
E. counterpart	1. Something which is the equivalent of something else.
F. depot	17. A place where goods are stored.
G. dire straits	11. Very serious situation.
H. disillusioned	16. Disappointed that something does not meet expectations.
I. ebb	6. The movement of the tide away from land.
J. extinct	2. No longer in existence.
K. instrumental	7. An important part of.
L. invertebrate	3. An animal which doesn't have a backbone.
M. Jurassic	5. Belonging to the second part of the Mesozoic era, between 190 and 140 million years ago.
N. outlandish	4. Unusual; unfamiliar.
O. palaeontologist	12. A scientist who studies fossils.
P. patriarchal	8. Controlled by men.
Q. prehistoric	10. Dating back to the period before written records.
R. sedimentary	13. Rock which has formed through layers of matter being built up.
S. supplement (verb)	14. To add to.