

Pepper's Family

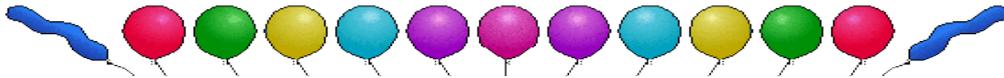

Pepper is a clown. He dresses in a funny way and tries to make people laugh by his jokes. Pepper lives and works in the circus. He has got a very big family. All the people in the circus are his relatives. His father Joe is a magician and his mother Connie is an acrobat. Pepper's sister is Megan, she is a juggler. Pepper's grandparents don't work anymore. They have got a lot of experience, so they are good advisers. They are very close, helpful and protective.

The circus looks like magic, but life isn't always easy. But when there are problems, everybody works together to solve them.

They travel a lot from place to place with their act, earning money by performing for the public. Pepper is a lucky person because he enjoys working with his family. He values family life very much, and likes spending his free time with them.

During the month of October they do not have shows. It is the time to prepare other acts. They create new texts and performances. Everybody is enthusiastic and tries to give their opinion. The older ones sew the clothes for the performers.

Pepper thinks that his family is different from the ordinary ones, but he feels happy and loves the way he lives and the people that are around him.

A. Are these sentences true or false?

Correct the false ones.

1. Pepper's job is making people unhappy.
2. His family has got lots of members.
3. His father works in the circus.
4. Pepper's grandparents are illusionists.
5. When Pepper's has got a problem he asks his grandfather for advice.
6. Pepper's doesn't like life in the circus.

B. Answer these questions.

Where does Pepper live?

What is his mother's Job?

Why are Pepper's grandparents good advisers?

Why don't they have shows during the month of October?

What does Pepper think about his family?

What does Pepper feel about his life in the circus?