

Olympics and sports - speaking questions.

Which are the most dangerous sports at the Olympics?

Which country was the first Olympics in?

What is the most boring sport at the Olympics?

What is the most exciting sport at the Olympics?

How many sports have you done? Can you name them?

Who are better at sports - men or women? Discuss...

If you're good at a sport, is it a natural talent... or is it something you can learn?

Who is the most famous British Olympian?

What is a mascot... and what were the two mascots for London 2012 called?

What is the Olympic torch?

What are the Olympics Opening and Closing ceremonies like?

How many medals are there in the Olympics and what colours are they?

Are there any sports that you like... but that are NOT seen at the Olympics?

Describe the Olympics - what is it all about?

Can you name some Olympic sports for individuals? Can you name some Olympic sports for teams? Which is better - individual or team sports?

Are the Olympics important in your country? If so, why?

Name some winter Olympics sports.

Name some of the sports that are in the summer Olympics.

Describe a favourite athlete of yours.

Do you need to exercise and go to the gym to be healthy?

What do you think are types of foods that athletes regularly eat?

In your opinion, are tickets for the Olympics too expensive?

Do you know anyone who has been or could be in the Olympics?

If you were in the Olympics, which sport would you do?

How would you feel if you won a Gold medal?

How would you feel if you won a silver or bronze medal?

Which is more important - winning or taking part?

Should athletes start training when they are young, or when they are older?

Do you think athletes live with too much pressure on them?

Should an athlete train more... or have more fun?

What's the difference between diving and swimming?

What's the difference between tennis and table tennis?